Description

HAFCO AR110 Heavy Duty Dry Wipes 110gsm

The HAFCO AR110 wipes are engineered for strength, durability, and superior absorbency. Designed for demanding workshop and industrial environments, they effectively remove dirt, grease, oil, and most adhesives while remaining soft and flexible for precision cleaning tasks.

The cloth-like construction allows the wiper to conform easily into tight or hard-to-reach areas, making it ideal for detailed component cleaning and controlled surface preparation.

AR110 dry wipes provides a reliable and cost-effective disposable wiping solution for everyday industrial use. Each box contains 150 sheets (61.5M), conveniently dispensed one sheet at a time to promote controlled usage and improved workplace hygiene. The packaging is designed for easy handling, storage and protection from contamination.
